Dental Hygiene Can Be A Rewarding Career

ROMEDEVILLE, IL – April 25, 2016

Valley View Dental hygienist, Rene Hunt speaks to students

Recently, Valley View Dental hygienist, Rene Hunt, B.S., R.D.H spoke with first grade students at Irene King Elementary School Career Day, about her career in dental hygiene and the path that took her there.

In addition, Rene also shared her daily responsibilities and other facts related to the dental profession including assessing the patient's condition with the help of a some good humor and videos.

“I work in a dental office caring for my patients every day and everyone is different.”

“Dental hygienists are trained and educated to focus and specialize in the prevention and treatment of oral diseases.

We focus on patients' teeth, gums and total overall health, always pointing out the importance of good oral hygiene” - Rene' Hunt, Valley View Dental.

Rene helped students understand what it takes to achieve a career in the dental field, the education requirements, and professional studies required. “It has been a rewarding career with a flexible work schedule that allows me to spend time with my family”.

Rene Hunt, B.S., R.D.H has worked as a dental hygienist for over 16 years , and has been with Valley View Dental, 441 North Weber Road in Romeoville for over 11 years. She is a proud member of the American Dental Hygiene Association and is a graduate of the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.
